Dear Requester:

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on October 16, 2017, for information pertaining to any and all records pertaining to the vehicular chase and apprehension of Joseph Moshe, reported as having made threats against the White House, in Los Angeles in 2009.

Enclosed are documents responsive to your request. In an effort to provide you with the greatest degree of access authorized by law, we have considered this material under the FOIA statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552. Pursuant to this Act, exemptions have been applied where deemed appropriate. The exemptions cited are marked below.

In addition, approximately 32 page(s) were released, and approximately 0 page(s) were withheld in their entirety. An enclosure to this letter explains the exemptions in more detail.

☒ If this box is checked, deletions were made pursuant to the exemptions indicated below.

If you deem our decision an adverse determination, you may exercise your appeal rights. Should you wish to file an administrative appeal, your appeal should be made in writing and received within ninety (90) days of the date of this letter, by writing to: Freedom of Information Appeal, Deputy Director, U.S. Secret Service, Communications Center, 245 Murray Lane, S.W., Building T-5, Washington, D.C. 20223. If you choose to file an administrative appeal, please explain the basis of your appeal and reference the case number listed above.

Additionally, you have the right to seek dispute resolution services from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) which mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Please note that contacting the Secret Service's FOIA Program and/or OGIS is not an alternative to filing an administrative appeal and does not stop the 90-day appeal clock. You may contact OGIS at: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001. ☒ FOIA and Privacy Act Exemption List

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matter that are:

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices any agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), if that statute: (A)(i) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (ii) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld; and (B) is established after the date of enactment of the OPEN FOIA Act of 2009;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency; provided that the deliberative process privilege shall not apply to records created 25 years or more before the date on which the records were requested;
- (b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonable be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonable be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions;
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

- (d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of civil action or proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) material is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process;

On 08/13/09, USSS/LAX attempted to interview the subject several times, but was ignored. They observed him enter his vehicle and they loosely tailed the subject and subsequently requested the assistance of the LAPD to execute a traffic stop. The subject evaded police and drove to the Federal Building in LA. The subject then refused to exit his vehicle. LAPD smashed a window of subject's vehicle and injected tear gas four times while the subject remained in the vehicle. Finally, LAPD extracted the subject from his vehicle and began decontamination. Subject was transported to the hospital.

Dear Mr. Birotte Jr.:

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

On 8/13/09, SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I again attempted to locate and interview the subject. SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I located the subject at his residence. The subject was seen leaving his residence in his vehicle. SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I followed the subject at a distance and contacted LAPD regarding the subject's location and (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) LAPD arrived on scene and attempted to conduct a traffic stop as the subject was attempting to back into his driveway which was blocked by SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) vehicle. The subject refused to exit his vehicle and sped away. After a pursuit, LAPD stopped the subject at the Federal Building, 11000 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90024, where he again refused to exit his vehicle. A stand-off ensued, lasting more than eight hours, before LAPD was finally able to remove the subject from his vehicle.

NARRATIVE: On 08/12/09, the Subject (b)(6);(b)(7) phoned the Los Angeles City 911 Communication Division, and spoke to a PSR. The Subject (b)(6);(b)(7) advised the PSR that he was going to bomb the White House. The Subject (b)(6);(b)(7) then threatened to kill the PSR. LAPD Communication Division advised the U.S. Secret Service and the LAPD Major Crimes Division, about the above incident.

On 08/13/09, U.S. Secret Service Agents (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) conducted a follow-up to the Subject's residence (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). There, they attempted to make contact with the Subject. The U.S. Secret Service Agents observed the Subject enter his vehicle and flee the location. The U.S. Secret Service Agents followed the Subject's vehicle and requested mutual aid from LAPD Pacific Division Officers. LAPD Officers in a marked black and white attempted to conduct a traffic stop, with negative results. The Subject led the LAPD Units on a slow moving pursuit towards the Los Angeles Federal Building. The Subject drove East bound through the rear parking lot of the Los Angeles Federal Building and came to a stop at Veteran St. The Subject refused to exit the vehicle, after Officers made several attempts to get the Subject out of his vehicle. Several Federal and LAPD Units arrived at scene and began to set a perimeter around the Subject.

LAPD and FBI Bomb Units arrived at scene. LAPD deployed a bomb robot towards the Subject's vehicle; to deliver a tactical phone, in-order to establish communications. FBI SWAT and FBI negotiators attempted to talk to the Subject, but the Subject refused to speak to anyone.

On 8/13/09, SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I again attempted to locate and interview the subject. SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I located the subject at his residence. The subject was seen leaving his residence in his vehicle. SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I followed the subject at a distance and contacted LAPD regarding the subject's location and (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). LAPD arrived on scene and attempted to conduct a traffic stop as the subject was attempting to back into his driveway which was blocked by SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) vehicle. The subject refused to exit his vehicle and sped away. After a pursuit, LAPD stopped the subject at the Federal Building, 11000 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90024, where he again refused to exit his vehicle. A stand-off ensued, lasting more than eight hours, before LAPD was finally able to remove the subject from his vehicle.
